Entrepreneurs' Organization Atlanta Chapter Welcomes Todd A. Bone as President

Atlanta, Georgia, July 1, 2008 – The Entrepreneurs' Organization (EO) Atlanta Chapter is proud to announce the induction of its 2008-2009 President, Todd A Bone. EO is a global network of business owners, all of whom run companies with an average annual size of $14M in revenue each. Engaging leading entrepreneurs to learn and grow through executive education and other tools for business owners, the Atlanta Chapter of EO was founded in 1993. Membership is comprised of more than 110 Entrepreneurs.

Mr. Bone first became involved in EO in 1999. He sat on the EO Atlanta Board from 2001-2005, holding the positions of Forum Chair and Finance Chair, and served on the International Forum Committee in 2005. Mr. Bone has attended EO Universities in New York, Hong Kong, Seattle, Mexico City, Sydney, Berlin and Queretaro. "My goal for the 2008-2009 year are to guide the Atlanta chapter to become one of the leading EO chapters worldwide through participation." says Todd A. Bone, "I would also like to bring EO's Accelerator Program to Atlanta by having 20-30 members between $250K and $1M in annual sales attend our 1 day per quarter all day workshop, and to bring an International University to Atlanta". His EO Atlanta Presidential term will run from July 1, 2008 – June 30, 2009.

Mr. Bone is Founder and CEO of Bone International Holdings (BIH), the parent company to XS International, Inc. and AvarSYS, Inc. XS International was founded in 1990 to provide lower cost computing alternatives via refurbished midrange and mainframe systems. Eighteen years later, XS International, Inc. has three divisions that meet IT life-cycle challenges to maximize value and minimize risk: XS Asset RecoverySM, XSnet ProductsTM & XSi SmartSourcingTM. AvarSYS, founded in 2004, is a technology solutions provider specialized in advanced visualization and high performance computing systems.
